A wonderful two bedroom period apartment, situated on Denmark Villas...This private property is spacious, emersed with light and presented in fantastic order...

As you enter, you immediately appreciate the spaciousness that the home affords. The main living room draws you in and is such a delightful space to relax. With views out to your secluded garden, this room lets in plenty of natural light, filling the vast proportions of the lounge. There is also a working fireplace and a separate storage room, which could house a small desk for those that need a space to work from home occasionally.

The main bedroom is located at the front and is a marvellous size. Also presented in great order, like the entire property, you will certainly enjoy retiring to this room after a long day at work. The second bedroom is also a comfortable double and finished with contemporary tones. The kitchen is extremely spacious and provides a wealth of worktop and surface space and offers excellent functionality.

The bathroom is something special, finished with Carrera marble and sleek matte black fittings. There is also a separate storage room which is a brilliant size and perfect for holding excess furniture.

The garden is a fantastic feature and a complete sun trap. It's easily managed and ideal to enjoy with friends in the summer months.

Denmark Villas is ideally located, just a just short stroll to Hove Station, Church Road and the seafront, you can understand why this is one of Hove's most desired postcodes!
