The History

Arguably Britain's coolest, most diverse and vibrant city by the sea. Brighton and Hove features a wealth of cultural delights including annual festivals and events. This along with its entertainment options, nightlife and eclectic shopping destinations help attract visitors from around the world.

The oldest part of Brighton, The Lanes, is a renowned shopping destination, with narrow streets offering a unique mix of one-off boutiques and antique shops. Head to London Road for the Open Market and a selection of great restaurants and pubs, or Kemptown for its lively bars.

North Laine forms the cultural centre of the city, a hotbed of entertainment including The Brighton Centre and 'Best Venue in the South', Komedia Brighton. It's also a fantastic choice for shopping and eating, with over 400 independent businesses. The adjacent Royal Pavilion Estate at the heart of the Cultural Quarter comprises a museum and art gallery, garden, concert hall and theatre and forms Brighton's most distinctive architectural icon. Of course the seafront is an integral part of the city, for quintessential seaside delights and an unbeatable place to watch the sun set.

Park Avenue is a new development of luxurious apartments and houses, ideally positioned adjacent to the attractive expanse of landscaped parkland of Preston Park, yet within striking distance from the beautiful seafront and buzzing central Brighton scene.

Closer to home, the sought after Fiveways Village area provides relaxed cafés and craft beer pubs to choose from, as well as the charming café at Blakers Park. The area also boasts some of the best pub Sunday roasts in the city, to name the Cleveland Arms and The Preston Park Tavern as two of the best!

Just moments from the doorstep, Preston Park is one of Brighton and Hove's most treasured city parks, and the perfect spot to relax and unwind within a captivating setting of ancient trees, exotic plants and winding pathways. Preston Park Avenue is also perfectly placed to enjoy the limitless bars, eateries, shops and cultural offerings of the local area, whether in laid-back Fiveways Village or vibrant Brighton.
